NOTIFICATION NO. 95/2021

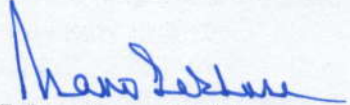

Dated Kohima, the 3rd November 2021

No.NBE-28/Ad-NCERT /2021-22 :: In pursuance of Ministry of Education letter F,No.13-14/2021-IS-11 dated 1st November 2021, it is hereby notified for information of the Heads of Institutions that UNESCO has declared 4th November 2021 as the International Day against Violence and Bullying in Schools, including Cyber bullying, under the theme “Tackling Cyber bully and Other Forms of Online Violence Involving Children and Young People”.

As the lives and education of children and young people have increasingly moved towards the online mode due to the Covid-19 pandemic, there is an increased risk of online violence. Hence, there is need to create safe online learning spaces for all learners and for prevention of cyber bullying. In this regard, UNESCO, in collaboration with NCERT has developed the following information resources and videos to ensure safe and secure online environment for children and teachers and for empowering them to stay safe online:

- i. Information booklet- safe online learning in times of COVID-19
- ii. Animation Video- Promotion of Safe use of internet, Gadgets and Media.
- iii. Presentation for students on Prevention of School-related gender-based violence.
- iv. Presentation for teachers on Prevention of School-related gender-based violence.
- v. Set of 5 posters- Be a buddy- Not a Bully.

The weblinks of the said resources are available on the websites of NCERT (Health and Wellness under Gallery tab) and UNESCO. The Heads of the Institutions are requested to share the information resources and videos with the students and teachers to educate and equip them to overcome these challenges.
